QUALIFYING:

Any car/driver which breaks the lap time barrier time in qualifying will start at the back of their respective class grid as mentioned below. The driver who breaks the class lap-time barrier by the biggest difference will be placed in the last grid position of their class. The driver with the second biggest difference, the second last grid position of their class and so on.

Super Future Classics to GRID first followed by Future Classics with a gap of one row. ***

RACE:

Breaking the lap time barrier in the race will give the driver/car a 10 second penalty for each lap that they break the Lap Time Barrier. So if a driver/car breaks it on one lap only the penalty is 10seconds. If a driver/car breaks it on two laps the penalty is 20 seconds, and so forth.
